

Notice of Temporary Closure

Ditsong Museums of South Africa has taken the decision to temporarily close its eight museums to the public, with effect from Friday, 20 March 2020 until after the Easter holidays. This is in line with President Ramaphosa's announcement declaring South Africa a State of Disaster and our responsibility is to minimise the risk of spreading Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The Council of Ditsong Museums, upon recommendation of Management has, in the interest of the well-being of its staff and visitors, decided to close the following museums:

- Cultural History Museum
- Military History Museum
- Natural History Museum
- Paul Kruger Museum
- Willem Prinsloo Agricultural Museum
- Sammy Mark Museum
- Pioneer Museum
- Tswaing Meteorite Crater

We will continue to evaluate the situation as it evolves and determine on a weekly basis when it is appropriate for us to reopen the museums.

DMSA will follow directives from government and any changes to the current status will be communicated through our website and social media.
